COMMUNITY ALLIANCE INC.

Membership Registration Form

There are four classes of membership in the CDCA:

Regular Resident Membership – Full Powers of Participation one vote per membership.

Regular Business Membership – Full Powers of Participation one vote per membership.

Affiliated Business Membership – One vote per corporate owner or representative.

Associate Membership – Other government, adjacent neighborhoods, and non-resident business entities with a demonstrated interest in the CDCA. This is a Non-Voting membership.

Regular Resident Membership: All owners permanently residing in the Channel District and renters who have signed leases for a minimum of 7 months will be eligible for regular membership in the CDCA. Owners who live outside the Channel District and who have no other connection with the Channel District other than the unit (s) they rent will not be eligible for regular membership as residents but will be eligible for Associate Membership. Individuals who have moved from the Boundaries of the CDCA but still maintain significant ties through business endeavors will be eligible for regular membership with full voting powers for a period of two years after leaving the district. These same individuals will be eligible for Associate Membership after that two-year extension has expired. For units that are occupied by more than one individual, co-owned there will be one vote. For units that are occupied by more than one individual, the person listed primary on the lease will have one vote. For single ownership or rental there will be one vote.

Regular Business Membership: Businesses who have a single business located within the boundaries of the CDCA, or whom regularly engage in the promotion of businesses established within the CDCA boundaries, or businesses that can demonstrate a quality of life or positive impact on the CDCA boundaries will be eligible for regular business membership. There is one vote per business ownership.

Affiliated Business Membership: For purposes of balancing interests between residential and business entities, business owners with multiple holdings in or abutting the boundaries of the CDCA who have a vested interest but have multiple holdings or are incorporated under a management entity are eligible for an Affiliated Business Membership. Such members, if holding more than one corporate identification, are limited to one vote as a corporate representative for the entire conglomerate. The Management company for businesses located within any single site location such as malls or multi-business locations will have one vote that represents that location.

Associate Membership: Representatives of other civic associations outside the boundaries of the CDCA, prior residents who no longer reside in the District but wish to extend their affiliation, or businesses who wish to affiliate with the CDCA but have no other eligibility as regular members, are eligible to become Associate members and will serve in all capacities as ex-officio members without voting privileges.

Access to Bylaws and other official association documents:

At this time a website is being developed for the Channel District Community Alliance. Upon completion of the site, all documents will be posted for viewing and download. Until such time as the site is launched, if you require a copy of association documents please contact us at CDCAcommunications@gmail.com

Meetings:

There are four general membership meetings held each year, one per quarter. Additionally, there are 12 (twelve) monthly board meetings each year and each is open to the public. Committee and Sub-Committee meetings are determined by the Chairs and will be announced individually. You may contact us at CDCAcommunications@gmail.com in order to inquire about committee meetings until such time as the website is operational. At that time all committee meetings will be posted on a community calendar. Finally, the CDCA will occasionally hold events in support of and on behalf of its membership. Please look to our Facebook page, website and community flyers for information on upcoming events. If you have signed up to receive emails from us you will automatically be notified of meeting reminders, events, etc.
